Over the back fence

Keep up to date with all the good things your fellow Palm Lake Resort family is up to Welcome.

As we move into the beautiful autumn months here in Ballina, we can look forward to some truly enjoyable weather. The cooler mornings and mild days make this a lovely time of year to get out and enjoy everything our resort has to offer.

Our regular undercover bowlers may notice some activity behind the bowling area in the coming weeks. Bupa is currently extending the car park adjacent to their property. While there will be some work taking place, it shouldn't have much impact on play, so bowlers can continue enjoying their games as usual.

We have recently welcomed several new homeowners to the community, and it's wonderful to see fresh faces settling in. Some of already have friends living here, which always helps make the transition that little bit easier. For those who are new to the resort, I'm sure you'll find that Palm Lake Resort Ballina is a friendly and welcoming place to call home. When you see someone new around the grounds, please take a moment to say hello and introduce yourself.

It's also encouraging to see continued interest from people hoping to join our community. Palm Lake Resort Ballina remains a very popular place to live, and it's easy to see why.

Thank you to the residents who have already sent in stories and updates for the newsletter. Your contributions help make it an interesting and enjoyable read for everyone. If you have something you'd like to share, please feel free to let me know.

Until next time,

Julie D'Arpino

Meet Janine!

Originally from Melbourne, our new Receptionist and Manager's Assistant Janine made the move to Ballina more than nine years ago. Now, she lives on the island close to town with her partner, Mark. Family is very important to Janine, and her four adult children are spread across Lismore, Melbourne and Canberra, as well as her three grandchildren – two girls and a boy.

Janine's career began with Coles, where she worked for more than 20 years, including at the Ballina store after transferring from Melbourne. Since then, she has held several rewarding roles supporting the elderly and people with disabilities, including working as a support worker and assisting customers with compression stockings and mobility aids.

More recently, Janine gained experience in administration, building strong relationships with clients through her friendly and helpful approach.

Janie says she is absolutely loving being part of Palm Lake Resort Ballina and is grateful for the opportunity to assist residents. In her spare time, she enjoys exploring the Northern Rivers and everything this beautiful region has to offer.

This is Your Time

The Autumn 2026 edition of This is Your Time magazine keeps you updated on all the news across our 27 Palm Lake Resort addresses – and more. Read all about the incredible Palm Lake Group precinct that takes in Palm Lake Resort Pelican Waters, Pelican Waters Golf Course and Pelican Waters Golf Club (including our restaurant, Cardon). These are undoubtedly the best residences and facilities ever designed and built by the Group in our almost 50-year history. Among the magazine's lifestyle features, readers will enjoy all things "The Bright Side" – from the myriad benefits of a 'bright' existence via alfresco living, and decorating with the year's bright colour winner, to holidaying in our bright new holiday home, and bright-flavoured citrus recipes. You can read the Autumn 2026 edition of our magazine online at palllakeresort.com.au

Four-legged friends

Palm Lake Resort understands how important pets can be in people's lives and we actively market our resorts as pet friendly. However, for the benefit and comfort of all homeowners, certain rules concerning pet ownership are in place. Initially, all pets in the resort need to be registered with the Resort Office. Your site agreement contains all the finer details in relation to this requirement and no reasonable requests have been denied.

Australia Day.

IN TRUE AUSSIE STYLE, THE RESIDENTS OF PALM LAKE RESORT BALLINA CAME TOGETHER TO CELEBRATE AUSTRALIA DAY WITH BURGERS, BEERS, AND A GOOD OLD-FASHIONED SINGALONG.

Despite the heat, a dedicated team of residents manned the barbecues and did a sterling job keeping everyone well fed. Our wonderful bar staff were also on hand to ensure no one went thirsty – some enjoyed that service a little more enthusiastically than others!

Local musician Luke Vassella set the tone for the afternoon with a fantastic selection of Australian ballads and singalong classics. The Chocolate Wheel – which is fast becoming a very popular part of our Australia Day celebrations – saw many winners sharing the bounty, while a serving of delicious lamingtons ensured the day ended on a sweet note.

With close to 200 residents in attendance, the day was a great success – thanks in no small part to the hard work of the Social Committee. New friendships were formed, old ones rekindled, and a genuine sense of mateship could be felt in the air. What a day!

Meet your neighbour.

DESPITE A CAREER AS A LIBRARIAN, NEW PALM LAKE RESORT BALLINA RESIDENT DELYS DE ZWAAN'S LIFE HAS BEEN ANYTHING BUT QUIET – ESPECIALLY WITH FOUR KIDS! NOW, SHE'S ENJOYING ALL THAT RESORT LIFE HAS TO OFFER.

I was born in Melbourne but moved to Sydney at the age of three, and I lived there until I got married. After finishing school, I studied to become a librarian. This led to a long and enjoyable career working in libraries in Sydney, Brisbane, London and New York state, only taking a few years off to raise our four children – three boys, one girl.

On December 12, 2012, I retired from the suburban New York library I had been working in for many years. That date (12/12/12) was an excellent date to pick for someone who has trouble remembering numbers! After retiring, I returned to Australia and moved into a unit in Ocean Shores, bringing me nearer to my children and the growing number of grandchildren – I now have 10! Five boys, five girls, all absolutely amazing. No bias, of course.

Even after my official retirement, I continued working part time in my old library, chasing summer from New South Wales to New York and back again. Then, COVID-19 hit. Unable to travel back to America, I lived in Ocean Shores full-time. It was a lovely spot with ocean views and great neighbours, but as I watched my friends age, I saw how their quality of life began to suffer. I started thinking seriously about the benefits of over-50s living.

Then, my friends moved to Palm Lake Resort Ballina, and I checked in with them a few months later – yes, wonderful! They took me around to the Sales Office and it was confirmed that there were places available. After a tour with Julie, I was blown away. What's not to love?! One of my sons came down to look, and he gave me the thumbs up. In fact, all my kids voted that I should move in – they were very supportive. "Enjoy your life," they said. And I do.

My Ocean Shores unit took longer to sell than I'd expected, but thankfully the Palm Lake Resort Ballina staff were very patient. Once I sold, the whole purchase went without a hitch. When I chose this house, I thought, good enough. Now that I'm moved in, I love it. The amenities here are amazing, the residents so supportive, and once again, I have fantastic neighbours.

I've had a few family members and friends over so far, and everyone has loved it. They're all very happy for me. I must admit, I feel a little smug about making such a clever choice.

Meet your neighbour.

MEET DOROTHY HAWKE, ANOTHER ONE OF OUR NEW RESIDENTS ENJOYING ALL THAT IS ON OFFER HERE AT PALM LAKE RESORT BALLINA.

Dorothy called Mittagong home for the past 25 years, until a fateful letterbox drop changed everything. A real estate agent had asked if she would like to sell her home – she took up the offer, and it was sold three weeks later.

The only question was, where to next? Dorothy's daughter Jennifer – who delivers the coffee at our resort restaurant – convinced her mother to check out our resort.

After losing her husband Brian two years ago, Dorothy wanted a place that would bring her closer to family, and something that was easier to maintain than her home at Mittagong. Palm Lake Resort Ballina ticked every box.

Since moving in, Dorothy – a keen crocheter – has attended some craft mornings, as well as the welcoming night at the Christmas street gathering. She feels very secure here at the resort and enjoys regular visits from her family.

Car enthusiasts are encouraged to stop and chat with Dorothy when they see her around the resort, as she picked up a lot of information over the many years she was married to Brian! Her late husband was not just a car enthusiast, but also the founder of Dataliner, a mechanical equipment company based in Ballina.

Brian painstakingly restored a 1947 Lancia Aprilia, one of just two Gran Sport Ghias in the world. Dorothy's son has possession of the car – that is, until a vintage car aficionado comes along to purchase it. Could it be you?

Cut flowers 101.

SPRING ISN'T THE ONLY SEASON FOR FLOWERS. AS WE HEAD INTO THE COOLER MONTHS, FRESH FLOWERS ARE STILL THE PERFECT WAY TO MAKE YOUR PALM LAKE RESORT HOME FEEL ALIVE. CONSIDER THIS YOUR OFFICIAL GUIDE TO THE VERY BEST CUT BLOOMS FOR YOUR HOME – AND OUR TOP TIPS TO KEEP THEM LOOKING FRESH.

Roses

Did you know that roses share lineage with apples, cherries and strawberries? Or that there are over 300 species? One of the oldest known flowers, roses have been used in recipes, cosmetics and rituals for millennia – so naturally, there is a lot of lore that surrounds them. But 'floriography' (communication through flower colours and arrangements) is actually quite simple when it comes to roses and what they symbolise: red means love, yellow means friendship and white means purity. Keep them fresh: For longer-lasting roses, trim stems on an angle and change the vase water every two days.

Tulips

Originating from central Asia – particularly Kazakhstan – tulips get their name from the Persian word for turban ('dulband' or 'tulband') for their shape. And they're not just beautiful – for a moment, in the Netherlands in the 17th Century, 'Tulip Mania' made rare tulip bulbs more valuable than gold. They are the national flower of the Netherlands, Turkey and Iran. Keep them fresh: Tulips continue to grow after being cut, so choose a taller vase and trim stems regularly.

Hydrangeas

Originating in Japan and Korea, famously spotted in Cape Cod (USA), with a Greek name, hydrangeas are as exotic as they are beautiful. Like roses, their colours signify different meanings – pink means love, blue means forgiveness, white is boastful and purple brings abundance or understanding. They grow beautifully in moderate, moist climates, but green thumbs beware – hydrangeas can release cyanide if ingested. Keep them fresh: Hydrangeas are thirsty flowers – keep the vase topped up and mist the blooms to prevent drooping.

Lilies

With over 100 species in a wide range of colours, lilies have maintained their position as one of the most popular flowers since ancient times. As symbols of purity and rebirth, lilies were historically associated with the divine and used in religious ceremonies. Nowadays, you're more likely to see them at weddings – especially trumpet-shaped Calla Lilies, which are having a major moment. They typically last one to two weeks in a vase but beware of fallen pollen and leaves: lilies are highly poisonous for pets if ingested. Keep them fresh: Remove the pollen stamens as the flowers open to prevent stains and help blooms last longer.

Chrysanthemums

Commonly known as 'mums', chrysanthemums originated in ancient China as early as the 15th Century BC and also have roots (pun intended) in ancient Greece. Proving their diversity, they're also the national flower of Japan. In Australia, chrysanthemums are often given for friendship and Mother's Day, though red mums can symbolise love and passion. Did you know that their scent can deter insects? All the more reason to include this easy-to-care-for flower in your next bouquet. Keep them fresh: One of the longest-lasting cut flowers, mums can stay fresh in a vase for up to two weeks.

Dahlias

The national flower of Mexico, dahlias were once cultivated by the Aztecs – not just for their beauty, but for food and medicinal purposes. In fact, they were thought to be vegetables when they were first introduced to Europe. But their versatility doesn't stop here: dahlia stems were once tested as natural water pipes in Mexico, and their petals have long been used as natural dyes. Dahlias are more than just a pretty face, it seems! Keep them fresh: Dahlias are best bought fully open, as they won't continue blooming once cut.

Peonies

When properly cared for, peonies can live for 100 years – a good omen, since they're also symbols of prosperity, fortune and romance. In fact, there is a famous 1000-year-old peony tree that still flowers in China, as well as many annual peony festivals. Fun fact: Peonies come in every colour but blue, making them a diverse addition to any bouquet or arrangement. Another fun fact: the correct pronunciation is more like 'peer-knee' than 'pee-oh-knee'. Keep them fresh: Peonies have a short season in Australia – usually late spring – so enjoy them while they're available.

Carnations

Not to be confused with peonies, which are larger and more spherical in full bloom, carnations are distinctive for their ruffled, fringed petals. Native to the Mediterranean region, the name carnation has several possible origins – the Latin word 'corona' (crown) for its use in ceremonial wreaths, or 'caro' (flesh), a nod to its natural colour. Often associated with love and admiration, carnations are popular around special occasions like Mother's Day and Valentine's Day. Keep them fresh: Carnations are hardy, often lasting two weeks or more with fresh water and trimmed stems.

Orchids

They're part of one of the largest flowering plant families, with over 28,000 species – and 192,000 hybrids – worldwide. In fact, orchids are more diverse than all mammal special combined. The most common types include moth orchids, corsage orchids and cymbidium orchids, all of which are popular in both fashion and home styling. Eager to grow your own orchids? Quality potting mix and a consistent watering schedule matter. Keep them fresh: Potted orchids thrive in bright, indirect light and only need watering about once a week.

Resort manager's report.

THERE'S PLENTY HAPPENING BEHIND THE SCENES AT PALM LAKE RESORT BALLINA AND OUR RESORT MANAGER, RICK, IS PLEASED TO SHARE HIS UPDATE WITH RESIDENTS.

Firstly, we're delighted to welcome two important new team members to the resort. Janine has joined us in Administration and will likely be a familiar friendly face in the office, assisting residents and supporting day-to-day operations. You can read more about Janine and her background on Page 3 of this newsletter. Meanwhile, Daichi has come on board as part of our grounds team, bringing great enthusiasm and care to maintaining the beautiful presentation of our lifestyle community.

It's also a busy time in my office as we prepare budgets for the coming financial year. This important process helps ensure we can continue delivering the high standards, services and lifestyle that make Palm Lake Resort Ballina such a special place to live.

Around the resort grounds, you may notice our plans taking shape for the scheduled painting of homes. This will provide a fresh new look across the community while protecting and preserving these abodes for years to come. In addition, several major garden renovation projects are already underway and progressing well, enhancing shared spaces and adding even more natural beauty for all to enjoy.

Looking ahead, we'll soon begin minor refurbishments to the main Country Club. While details are still being finalised, these updates will modernise and further enhance our resort's most loved social hub, so make sure to watch this space for more.

Until next time,

Rick Stewart,
Resort Manager

Over the back fence.

THE PALM LAKE GROUP SPANS 27 RESORT ADDRESSES ACROSS THREE STATES AND SOME 12,000 PEOPLE CALL PALM LAKE GROUP HOME, SO THERE IS ALWAYS PLENTY OF GOOD NEWS AROUND OUR GROUNDS.

Caretakers make the Palm Lake world go 'round!

Every Palm Lake Resort community has an onsite Caretaker (or two) at the helm, managing the day-to-day operations at that address. They oversee local teams of groundspeople, cleaners, cooks and more. Many Caretakers in our established resort communities also facilitate home sales, while also rolling up their sleeves when it comes to serving weekly dinners, for example. They are the first port of call for homeowner queries and oversee all the various local resort special interest groups. They are also an important conduit between Palm Lake Resort headquarters at Southport and their respective local address. They are the glue that holds each of the country's 27 resorts together.

As Palm Lake Group's Executive Manager, People & Operations, Amanda Clements says, "We are very grateful to have a wonderful group of dedicated and long-time Caretakers across our 27 resort addresses". And when she says "long time" – she means it.

For example, Lea has spent most of her 17+ years with the company in the Caretaker role across Victoria but moved into a sales role at Willow Lodge more recently. She and (late) husband, Peter, were Caretakers together at Phillip Island for 13+ years before Peter's illness (pictured above).

"For all the years we were at Phillip Island we were it – sales and Caretaking – we did the lot," Lea smiles. "Our motto was to show compassion and give the homeowners the time they needed, and to listen. But above all, our aim was always to leave them with a smile on their faces.

"Peter and I built great relationships with our homeowners and helped them as much as we could while always being mindful there was that line, as Caretakers, we couldn't cross. I still live at Phillip Island and see some of the homeowners down the street – they always stop to say hello, and it feels great that we are both still remembered at the Phillip Island resort."

Lea says her advice to new Caretakers and those looking to join the company in this role, is simply to listen. Always.

"A problem that seems small to us can be huge for a homeowner – also, you should never forget that everyone at Head Office and all our fellow Caretakers are always there to answer any questions you may have – you don't have to do it all on your own.

"When we joined Palm Lake Resort back in 2008, the company was much smaller. I am still in awe of the growth of the company that Wal Elliott founded all those years ago. I have always felt that under the guidance of Wal and Scott Elliott we are one big family – a family that I am happy and grateful to still be a part of. Work has been my saviour. And hopefully I still have a few working years left in me!"

Caretaker Michaela at Palm Lake Resort Eagleby Heights is also coming up to 17 years with the company. Caretakers at Mt Warren Park, Trish and Rik, will soon commemorate 14 years, while Wayne and Di (Banora Point) and Robyn and Bernie (Yamba) have all marked a decade or more.

With nine years in the company, current Palm Lake Resort Paynesville Caretakers Jo and Troy were married while caretaking at our Truganina resort some years back. Jo gave her beloved homeowners a glimpse into the highly anticipated wedding day by coming into work in her wedding dress! And we know that many of our long-time Caretakers are well respected by their communities based on the feedback we hear direct from those homeowners. At Palm Lake Resort Carindale for example, the homeowners got together last year and created a 'contract' that they presented to Caretakers Karen and Wayne stating that "The undersigned are committed to us at Palm Lake Resort Carindale and will never leave!". The pair were "so touched" by the gesture, that Karen says, "Of course we put our autographs on that document!"

Honourable mentions must also go to the following Caretakers who've marked 5+ years in the role:

- Ron and Jo (Fern Bay): 7 years
- Karen and Mark (Toowoomba): 6 years
- Tracey and Bryce (Forster Lakes): 5 years
- Kym (Yamba Cove): 5 years
- Phil and Lyn (Deception Bay): 5 years

Without doubt, Caretakers underpin the success of our Palm Lake Resort communities and we're grateful to have them onboard!

Love is in the air.

Tai chi champions.

Congratulations to Palm Lake Resort Mt Warren Park, who were the grand winners of the 2025 Inter-Resorts Tai Chi Competition. With steady hands, great teamwork and plenty of laughs, they won with a grand total of 5903 points (beating second-place team's 4480 by a wide margin). "They showed obvious skill and determination, with lots of laughs, to come out on top," says the instructor on the day. And spoiler alert: they're already leading the 2026 competition!

Paws on parade.

A group of Palm Lake Resort Bargara homeowners have started walking their dogs over to Palm Lake Care Bargara each month to let the care residents enjoy some friendly canine company and pet therapy. Everyone loves patting the doggos and chatting with the visitors – though few are as excited as the dogs themselves!

It takes a village.

Palm Lake Resort Cooroy-Noosa's latest cent auction raised over $3100, with the majority going to Uniforms 4 Kids (U4K) – an organisation which repurposes pre-loved uniforms into clothes for children in need.

"Thank you, thank you, thank you to everyone who helped with, attended and donated goods to the cent auction," said organiser and homeowner Yvonne Pattinson. "The sewing ladies truly did themselves proud with the beautiful food. I'm sure everyone had a great day."

The impact of this fundraising is already being felt well beyond the local community. According to a statement from the Queensland Police Service, Cooroy U4K volunteers have worked tirelessly to prepare 40 boxes of essentials for Queensland families. The boxes contained an extraordinary 3200 handmade clothing items, lovingly transformed from repurposed police uniforms into dresses, skirts, shorts, baby clothes, hair accessories, scrunchies, pencil cases and library bags. The boxes were also filled with generously donated items such as baby socks, beanies, small bags of LEGO parts, stationery, bracelets, toys and tissues.

Must love dogs.

The very first Palm Lake Resort Toowoomba dog show brought homeowners and their four-legged friends together for a day of laughter, wagging tails and the occasional bark of excitement. Sponsored by the Palm Lake Group, the inaugural event was such a success that it's set to become an annual tradition.

What's over your back fence?

Has your resort got a warm and fuzzy "Over the back fence" story to share with the whole Palm Lake Resort group? We'd love to include it in the next editions of our resort newsletters. Simply contact your Caretakers or email the details to Belinda at belinda@bellepr.com
