Fill your diary

Our Weekly Activities program is full to the brim with things to keep you active and social.

Memory lane

Reminiscing is good for you, so we're looking back. How many of these 70s and 80s moments do you remember?

By all reports

Our resort is home to some thriving groups and committees - hear from them inside.

Welcome.

Hello to you all,

Welcome to the Christmas and New Year edition of our newsletter. I can't believe how quickly this year has gone by.

I hope that, by the time you get this newsletter, everyone has their Christmas decorations up and the resort looks like a Christmas wonderland at night-time. Regarding outdoor lights, please make sure that they turn off at a reasonable time and that they do not flash all night. Please also be mindful when the mowing guys come, as they don't want to have to remove decorations from the front lawns. Finally, can we please remember to take down or turn off the outdoor Christmas lights when the festive season is over? This will make it all the more special when you turn them back on next Christmas!

With all the functions going on over the Christmas and New Year period, please be mindful of parking in the car parks at the club houses. Make sure you park within the allocated parking spaces to make it easier for your fellow homeowners and any visitors.

The resort office will be closed from 12pm on Friday December 23 until Tuesday January 3, 2023. Daguy and Jeremias will still be working during this time, except for weekends and public holidays. I will have the office number diverted to my mobile for any resort emergencies and sales enquiries.

We hope you have a wonderful December and January. The staff at Palm Lake Resort Eagleby would like to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

Check out one of our cutest residents, Indianajones, celebrating Christmas last year. Thank you to his owner Ann Shannon for sharing this fun throwback! We wonder how they will be celebrating the festive season this year?

From the Home Owners' Committee.

We had a bumper Melbourne Cup Day celebration this year. Your committee provided a heavily subsidised lunch to almost 100 residents at Lakeview, and almost 150 at the Summer House. It was decided early on that the same entertainment would be provided at each clubhouse and, by all reports, this led to a great day being enjoyed by all. Particular thanks have to go to your Treasurer, Faye Cole, who took on the heaviest workload in the organising and managed the Summer House on the day, and to Rowena, helped by Kath, for looking after Lakeview. Thanks also go to Maz who talked with the caterers through the year, the ‘fellas’ in the workshop who made new horses for Lakeview and Di who painted them, as well as those who welcomed guests, and looked after the sweeps and the betting on the Hobby Horse races. Unfortunately, I couldn’t make it on the day so I may have missed thanking some people. Be assured that if you helped in any way at all, your efforts are appreciated.

The end of the year is coming so quickly. We’re all thinking about Christmas and, for some, anticipating time with families and friends. If you don’t have family close by, remember that there’s always the ‘orphans gathering’ at the Summer House, which happens each year. You can bring your own lunch or some food to share, and join in on the fun and games in great company.

On New Year’s Eve, we will have entertainment at both the Lakeview Clubhouse and the Summer House. Lakeview will have ‘One Too Many’ playing, while the Rezident Band will be playing at the Summer House. Watch the noticeboards for more information.

You may be aware that there will be a few of the current committee members standing down next year, for personal reasons. If you have thought that you might be interested but don’t know what it’s all about, you’re more than welcome to come to one of our monthly committee meetings to check it out. Just let a current member know – you’ll find all their names and details on the noticeboards. Being on the committee is not too onerous and is a great opportunity to be involved and help this fabulous community continue to thrive.

I leave you with this Christmas thought from author Nora Roberts...

Marilyn Goodwin, Home Owner Committee President

“Nothing ever seems too bad, too hard, or too sad when you’ve got a Christmas tree in the living room.”

STAYING IN THE LOOP

On November 4 our local Logan City Council Division 12 Councillor Karen Murphy paid Palm Lake Resort Eagleby another visit. Homeowners who had attended her previous session were delighted to welcome her back, and others were glad to take the opportunity available.

Once again Karen explained her role in the council and the community, and was happy to inform Palm Lake Resort homeowners of the programs and activities available to all Logan residents in the wider community.

Members of the Garden Club, who stayed on after their own meeting, were particularly interested to hear about Council’s Recycling Waste Management Program. The program produces top quality potting mix as its end product, which Council then on their parks and gardens. Previously, the bulk waste was transported to Toowoomba by truck. Now there is minimal waste to transport, saving a great deal of money.

Many residents had questions for Karen related to issues in Eagleby and Beenleigh, and Karen answered all questions put to her quite openly. Some questions related to potholes, dumping of rubbish, closure of the local Eagleby pool and weeds in the wetlands behind the resort, among other things. Karen shared information relating to Council’s role in these things and assured people if they emailed her with their concerns, she would pass them on to the relevant departments.

Once the discussion ended, those who attended thoroughly enjoyed the Subway fare that Karen had provided for morning tea. It seems there’s always something new to learn about what’s happening around us when Karen comes to visit. As usual, her visit was both informative and enjoyable.

Bowls Club.

Welcome to our December-January bowls update. It is hard to believe that the 2022 bowls calendar has now concluded, with our AGM held on Monday November 28. By the time you are reading this report, our members will have elected our incoming 2023 Committee and I know that they will have already started planning a full calendar of events for next year. I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the service and commitment of the outgoing Committee during what has been a difficult and challenging year.

The final inter-resort game was against Palm Lake Resort Toowoomba and resulted in three winning rinks each. Toowoomba ultimately won by two points on a count back. It was a very exciting way to finish the year.

The Women's Open Singles Final was played on Sunday November 13 between Pam Breuer and Rowena Milivojevic. Pam was the winner, with her experience prevailing.

Although our formal bowls calendar has finished, social bowls will continue. There will be a short break over Christmas and New Year's, but it will resume in early January.

Remember our Happy Hour at the Bowls Club is on every Saturday night, commencing at 4pm. Come along and socialise with your fellow club members and enjoy trivia and raffles. There are cash prizes of $25, plus our weekly Members' Draw which jackpots by $25 if not won – but you must be there to claim it!

New bowlers are always welcome to join our club, with free coaching and Loan Bowls available during training. For all enquiries, contact Dave Lewis (ph. 1571) or Pom Bailey (ph. 7823).

Finally, on behalf of the president and the committee, we wish you a very happy Christmas and a safe and COVID-free New Year.

John Colless
Vice President

Pool Club.

The past few months have been exciting for our pool group – here's what has been happening since our last report.

September 17: We had 24 players and the winners on the day were Peter White and Peter Milivojevic.

September 24: We had 22 players, and the winners were Boyd Everett and Frank Buckley.

We had a medical emergency; an ambulance was called, and I would like to thank everyone for their help.

October

October 1: Welcome to new player Ron Little. We had 26 players and the winners on the day were Bob Greenleaf and Hugh Wilkins.

October 8: We had 26 players. Winners of the day were Mario Mifsud and Angus Walker. A big thank you to John Palmer for helping to make up the numbers. It was a great afternoon.

October 15: We had 22 players and winners were John Edmondson and Bill Lamond, in a four-way draw. A great afternoon was had by all.

October 22: We had 26 players. Winners were Peter Bailey and Boyd Everett. It was also good to have Baz Moreland back after his ordeal.

October 27: We had 22 players and the winners of the day in a two-way draw were Harry Creevey and Hugh Wilkins.

November

November 5: We had 24 players and the winners with 4 straight wins were Bob Allen and Bert Edwards. Thanks again to Baz Moreland for standing in to make up the numbers.

As this is the last report for the year I would like to, on behalf of all pool members and myself, wish everyone a safe and Merry Christmas.

Cheers,

Knitting/sewing report.

It is once again time to thank the many people who have helped make this another successful year for the Knitting/Sewing Group. As this will be my last year with the group, I must firstly thank the wonderful volunteers Liz Brunton, Glenys Baeb, Cass Sharp, Diane Wisowaty, Sue Conway, Maz Gooding and Sherilen Sanderson for their endless support. You have all made our time together so rewarding. I must also thank my husband, Greg, for his understanding and patience over the years.

We have been fortunate enough to receive a monthly donation from the Home Owners' Committee, which has eased our financial burden since October, 2020. Donations of ready-made blankets, knee rugs, wool and needles have also been received from the residents of Palm Lake Resort Eagleby, which are greatly appreciated. All contributions have been used to assist the homeless, victims of domestic violence, sick children and teachers within our local school, as well as the needy in our community.

It is delightful to see the joy on the faces of the children as we share the camaraderie in class while learning valuable life skills. Crocheting, under the tutelage of Sherry, has been well received and we have had our first student complete his project on our electric sewing machine. Lincoln wants to be a tailor and has made a big impression on Cass, his teacher. Sue and Diane are our knitting experts. I was surprised to learn how many people couldn't sew on a button! This very important job was handed over to Glenys. Maz is invaluable as she slots into various areas as needed. I am really proud of our team, the amazing work we have achieved and how well we work together.

The craft day on Saturday November 12 was a great success with the prizes as follows:

- First prize: Philis Haines (Home 213) chose the beautiful basket weave blanket
- Second prize: Lillian Martin (Home 319) chose Mr and Mrs Claus
- Third prize: Jennifer Whitlock (Home 281) received the remaining blanket.

All prizes were delivered on Saturday after the close of the event.

The group will continue in future under the guidance of Diane Wisowaty. My best wishes are extended to her and the rest of the team. I will definitely miss working with everyone, but I know that we have made a big difference to our community.

Merry Christmas to everyone, stay safe and have a wonderful New Year,

Judy Reinke

Road Runners.

I don't have much to report on for the group this month as we are getting near the end of the year with only a couple of trips planned before Christmas.

As this will be the last newsletter for the year, Sherril and I would like to take this opportunity to wish each and every resident a very safe and happy Christmas. We hope that you will all get to spend some quality time with family and friends over the festive season. If you are travelling, please take extra care on the roads and be aware of what the other drivers around you are doing – we don't want you to be part of their accident.

Because the newsletter is now only produced every second month we miss out on some things, such as our upcoming trip (at the time of typing this report) to Iluka, NSW. For those who do not know where Iluka is, it is on the opposite side of the river to Yamba. We have a good number of people who have either booked or indicated that they will be going down to Iluka for between five days and two weeks. Two of the couples who have sold their caravans have booked cabins for four or five days while we are down there so they can still enjoy the fellowship we have on our trips away. Hopefully we will get a couple of games of bowls in while we are there too.

On November 28, we have quite a few going out to Lake Dyer, near Laidley, for five nights. This is always a good place to go as it is only about an hour-and-a-quarter drive from our resort and the rates are very reasonable – we get the fourth night free.

On December 18 we will be having our RV groups' annual Christmas lunch at the Bowls Club. It was originally put back a week due to the Ukulele group putting on a concert on the same day. However, I have since found out that date will be the pool group's annual break-up too. So, we have put it back another week. We hope everyone can join us.

If you would like to know more about our group, please email me at jandslions@bigpond.com

Step back in time.

WE'RE ALWAYS BEING TOLD NOT TO LIVE IN THE PAST, BUT DID YOU KNOW THAT CERTAIN TYPES OF REMINISCING CAN ACTUALLY BE GOOD FOR YOU? FROM REDUCING THE IMPACTS OF DEMENTIA TO PROMOTING POSITIVE PERSONAL GROWTH, FIND OUT WHY AND HOW TO GET A HEALTHY DOSE OF NOSTALGIA.

Dwelling on the past is no longer seen as a sign of senility – in fact, therapists have harnessed the power of reminiscing to treat people with Alzheimer's and other kinds of memory loss. In 1963, psychiatrist Robert Butler first introduced the idea that reminiscing in old age could be positive. Since then, 'reminisce therapy' has been developed as a non-pharmacological intervention for seniors, especially those with impaired short-term memory. Here's why...

It can improve your day

According to Psychology Today, researchers from Loyola University found that thinking of good memories for just 20 minutes a day can make you more cheerful than you were the previous week. Just think about the feeling that comes over you when you see, smell or hear something familiar, or when you look back through photos from happy times.

It can make you feel safe

Nostalgia is often associated with melancholia, but it can also make us feel comfortable. Next time you're in a new place or experiencing feelings of displacement, try thinking or writing about your favourite people and places. Psychologist Tim Wildschut found that people who write about a nostalgic event are more cheerful after the exercise, and feel more positively about their friendships and close relationships. This gives us a comforting sense of belonging.

It brings you closer to your loved ones

Reminiscing on memories is an important way to ground yourself and stay true to your roots. This is because your special memories almost always feature special people.

Studies have shown that people with nostalgia-prone personalities cope with problems more effectively as they are more likely to receive social support after experiencing stress, and see their families more often.

It can motivate you

Drawing from memories of your past accomplishments is a common way to stay motivated – you may not even realise you're doing it. Have you ever thought to yourself, "If you got through that, you can get through this"? Of course, try not to ruminate too long on difficult times – focus instead on how you got through them, and how you felt on the other side.

It can benefit those around you

We gain wisdom from our own experiences, but also from the experiences of others. Reminiscing on your past can shine a light on important lessons you learnt – lessons that you can pass on to your children, grandchildren and even friends. Flipping through old photo albums can be a helpful way to spark these conversations; turn to the following page to find out how to best document your memories.

Remember: reminiscing is all about how you perceive the past. The same memory can promote positivity or pain depending on how you look at it. Psychologist Sonja Lyubomirsky says it best: "It's what you focus on. Do you focus on how positive it was then, or that it's over now?". As some people say, 'Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened' – it's cheesy, but it's true.

Do you remember?

Homeowners at Palm Lake Resort's over-50s communities all lived through the '70s and '80s. But how much can you recall from that time period? Whether you were closer to 10 years old or 30, you'll likely remember these moments and memories from 1975 to 1985. There are some great conversation starters here for our next weekly meal!

On the big screen...

These were among the highest grossing movies released from 1975 to 1985. Did you see them in the cinemas, and have you watched them since? Perhaps a nostalgic screening is in order!

- Jaws (1975)
- Rocky (1976)
- Star Wars (1977)
- Grease (1978)
- The Amityville Horror (1979)
- Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back (1980)
- Superman II (1981)
- E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial (1982)
- Risky Business (1983)
- Ghostbusters (1984)
- Back to the Future (1985)

On the radio...

Billboard magazine named these as the number one songs from 1975 to 1985. How many can you remember the words to? Can you remember your favourite songs from those years?

- 'Love Will Keep Us Together' by Captain & Tennille (1975)
- 'Silly Love Songs' by Wings (1976)
- 'Tonight's the Night' by Rod Stewart (1977)
- 'Shadow Dancing' by Andy Gibb (1978)
- 'My Sharona' by The Knack (1979)
- 'Call Me' by Blondie (1980)
- 'Bette Davis Eyes' by Kim Carnes (1981)
- 'Physical' by Olivia Newton-John (1982)
- 'Every Breath You Take' by The Police (1983)
- 'When Doves Cry' by Prince (1984)
- 'Careless Whisper' by Wham! (1985)

On the front page...

Can you remember these history-making moments that took place between 1975 and 1985? Or, better yet, can you remember where were you when you first heard about them?

- In 1975, the Vietnam War ends with the surrender of South Vietnam to Communist forces.
- In 1975, Nadia Comaneci wins three gold medals at the Montreal Olympics with seven perfect scores.
- In 1977, Elvis Presley dies at the age of 42.
- In 1978, the first test tube baby is born in the US.
- In 1979, Sony releases the Walkman.
- In 1980, John Lennon is assassinated at age 40.
- In 1981, NASA launches the first Space Shuttle mission.
- In 1982, the first episode of Late Night with David Letterman debuts on NBC.
- In 1983, the first mobile phones are introduced by the public by Motorola. The final episode of 'M*A*S*H' airs to a record 125 million viewers.
- In 1984, the first Apple Macintosh personal computer goes on sale.
- In 1985, the Rainbow Warrior is sunk by French foreign intelligence services off the coast of NZ.

Organising your memories.

LIFE IS FULL OF PHOTO-WORTHY MOMENTS – SO MUCH SO, MOST OF US END UP WITH A BAZILLION HAPPY SNAPS SPREAD ACROSS A HANDFUL OF DEVICES, ALBUMS AND HARD DRIVES.

Thankfully, website and app developers know the struggle, so there are a number of programs you can use to help you on your photo-organising quest. And with the holiday season upon us and family generally around, why not sort out your memories once and for all - for everyone's benefit.

Gather them up

Before you can organise your photos, you need to see them all in one place. This may mean scanning physical photos to create digital copies, which you can either do using a scanner or via your smartphone – a quick Google will explain how. You can then save them directly to your camera roll or to an app like Dropbox. You'll also want to find old CDs, USBs or hard drives that could house more pictures. Don't forget to go through your smartphone and any of its backups to find additional images, and check your camera's SD cards if you have one.

Find the perfect place

Where you store your photos is up to personal preference, but using a cloud-based service is generally the safest, most convenient place. If you use an iPhone and computer, iCloud may be your best bet – it works with your phone to sync images across all devices, and it's relatively affordable if you need to upgrade your storage. Alternatively, Dropbox or Google Drive can be used on the computer and your phone via the app. If you're not a fan of cloud storage, consider an external hard drive for your computer. They're relatively inexpensive but localised – meaning you can only access those photos when you're at your computer.

Set up a system

Depending on your needs, every system has its benefits. While some people prefer to create folders for different events – like, say, 'Japan trip' or 'Emma's first birthday' – this may not lend itself to the more spontaneous snaps. It may be better to create a folder for each year, then a folder for each month. If a particular event happened in a certain month, you could then create a folder solely for that event in the month's folder; for example, your "2019" folder will include a "May" folder, which will include a "Mother's Day Lunch" folder with photos from that event.

Make physical mementos
