Welcome.

Welcome to the latest edition of your resort newsletter, The Tide. Well, Spring is here but without the impact it made last year. The first week of September last saw temperatures well above average with maximums in the mid to high twenties. It even hit 30.5 degrees on September 7. Just for the record, while July and August seemed cold the nightly minimums were 1.4 and 2.5 degrees above the mean daily minimum respectively. The daily maximums were close to average. There was no denying that winter was wet, with a massive total of 255 mm for August alone. This however pales into insignificance when you compare it to August 1952 when more than 427 mm was recorded. As we write this article the sun is shining, so fingers crossed, we continue to have normal weather conditions as Spring unfurls.

Newcastle and surrounding districts are home to some wonderful shopping centres and our regular shopping bus runs head to most of them. The bus heads off to Greenhills Shopping Centre twice a month on Mondays with trips to Raymond Terrace and Salamander Shopping Centre also on Mondays. The Thursday run rotates between Charlestown Square and Westfield Kotara. Please note the bus does not run on public holidays and a minimum number of five passengers is generally required for the bus to depart. Numbers have been low on occasion of late and we've been cancelling. It would be great to see more residents taking advantage of this worthy resort amenity. Another resort amenity that has seen falling numbers of late is the Resort Cinema. Films are run every Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:45 and again for a matinee each Saturday at 2:00 pm. Recent releases plus the occasional classic are featured, so why not take advantage of this great resort amenity.

Well, that's all for this edition. Get out and enjoy the Spring sunshine. See you around the resort.

Four-legged friends

Palm Lake Resort understands how important pets can be in people's lives and we actively market our resorts as pet friendly. However, for the benefit and comfort of all homeowners, certain rules concerning pet ownership are in place. Initially, all pets in the resort need to be registered with the Resort Office. Your site agreement contains all the finer details in relation to this requirement and no reasonable requests have been denied.

This is Your Time

The latest edition of This is Your Time magazine harnesses the exciting energy of spring. We cover all the new 'growth' across our company, including the unveiling of Australia's (and arguably the world's) biggest and most opulent community facility at Palm Lake Resort Pelican Waters: The Springs Country Club. We also reveal our teams' 'local loves' across Palm Lake Resorts Yamba Cove, Paynesville and Foster Lakes areas. Among the lifestyle features, we urge readers to take their cues from spring and book a (literally) bloomin' great holiday or add a plant-based spring recipe to their menu repertoire. Palm Lake Resort homeowners will find a copy of the magazine in their letterbox and anyone can read the edition online at palllakeresort.com.au

From the Social Committee...

THE PALM LAKE RESORT FERN BAY SOCIAL COMMITTEE HAS SUCCESSFULLY HAD FOUR RECENT SOCIAL EVENTS FOR OUR HOMEOWNERS.

June featured a rock 'n' roll band who were new to us at Palm Lake Resort, by the name of 'Jake Rattle & Roll'. They played great dance music, and residents were filling the dance floor most of the night. They were a really tight group who we will possibly get back again.

In July, the 'Macreid Duo' performed. A local brother and sister duo, they played some great music. As if their musical talents weren't enough, the sister also works for local radio station 2NURFM as an on-air presenter.

August featured local comedian/impersonator 'Irish Albert', who has performed successfully in our clubhouse previously. Again, Albert had the audience in stitches as the jokes rolled out.

Late August also presented our very own band 'Turn the Page' who also put on a great night for those who attended. The dancefloor was once again full, for those who wished to dance the night away.

Upcoming social events for Palm Lake Resort Fern Bay residents include a meat raffle on September 12, our trivia trophy night on September 27 and the B Boomers returning on October 18.

From reluctant to right at home...

GREG BECK NEVER WANTED TO MOVE TO PALM LAKE RESORT FERN BAY – HE'LL TELL YOU THAT HIMSELF. IN FACT, 'KICKING AND SCREAMING' ARE THE WORDS HE USES TO DESCRIBE HIS FEELINGS ABOUT COMING HERE.

As he once wrote in an article published shortly after their move to Palm Lake Resort, he was the "reluctant, conservative and sometimes difficult spouse" being dragged from his Canberra comfort zone.

But after a long career spent travelling the world – first with the Navy, then the Department of Transport's Search and Rescue Centre – Greg felt he owed his wife, Janet, her own adventure.

The couple met in Canberra when they were 22 and 20, respectively. Despite both working in the Navy's Communications department, they first crossed paths in a pub. It was Janet's 20th birthday.

"I remember Greg had a car, and the chap I was with at the time didn't," she says. "The next time we met was at a Sunday dance, after which Greg started walking me back to the quarters. He had to go back to get his parka, and I remember standing there, wondering why I was waiting for him. I guess that was it, after that."

That was 59 years ago. Now, Greg and Janet are starting to think about how they'll celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary in a few years' time.

Soon after they married, Janet left the Navy to focus on raising a family. While Greg travelled to faraway places, moving up the ranks from Tactical communications to Signals Yeoman, Janet was at home, raising their three children.

"We didn't have much choice, in those days," she remembers. "It was pretty rare that any of us went out to work because childcare wasn't available. You look back now and think, 'Oh, that was an achievement', but it was just what you did back then."

"During my various roles – with the Navy, Search and Rescue and even the Australian Maritime Safety Authority – I spent plenty of time in Asia, the USA, New Zealand, United Kingdom and the islands of the South Pacific," Greg says. "I loved it. But in the back of my mind, I was always thinking of my family and my wife back home."

"She put up with me going away for many years, leaving her on her own with three kids. I've got to hand it to her for that. She's not a bad old chick."

So, when Janet suggested they move from Canberra to Palm Lake Resort Fern Bay – both for a sea change and to be closer to their son and his family in Nelson Bay – Greg figured it was his turn to make a sacrifice.

As Greg recalls, the moment Janet suggested they stop at the Sales Office felt like "the thin edge of the wedge." Within half an hour she had a deposit down, and their move, he says, was inevitable.

Nine years later, Greg will happily admit it wasn't such a big sacrifice after all.

"It took me a while to adjust to being away from my friends and life back in Canberra, but I've ended up liking the place," he says. "We've got fantastic managers, facilities and neighbours – everything we need is right here."

Janet feels the same. "It's been so good for us. We use the pool and the library, go to the meals, head to the cinema – there's always something happening, and while we don't do everything, we love knowing it's all there."

That sense of community has proven particularly valuable recently. At the time of writing, their neighbours have kept an eye on Greg while Janet spends weeks in Brisbane recovering from a broken wrist – an injury sustained on a recent trip to Bali for their daughter and son-in-law's vow renewal. The accident took place just before the ceremony, meaning they had to fly home early so she could receive hospital treatment.

A stressful time – particularly for their daughter and son-in-law, who's vow renewal plans never came to fruition – made easier knowing Greg is looked out for back home.

"I'm grateful for Janet for so many things, but particularly for having the foresight to move us here – even despite my opposition," he says. "She was right."

And as for their upcoming 60th wedding anniversary?

"You guys should do something – that way I can ruin it!" their daughter jokes.

In the dog house.

DOWNSIZERS DON'T TYPICALLY MOVE TO PALM LAKE RESORT WITH CHILDREN IN TOW, BUT FUR CHILDREN ARE A WHOLE OTHER STORY – WHICH IS WHY SO MANY OF OUR RESORTS ARE DESIGNED WITH PETS IN MIND. THINKING OF ADDING A FOUR-LEGGED FRIEND TO YOUR FAMILY? HERE ARE SOME POPULAR BREEDS THAT THRIVE IN RESORT LIFE.

Dachshunds

Affectionately known as ‘Daccys’ (and properly pronounced “Darks-hund”), Dachshunds are energetic, lovable and loyal – making them the perfect companion for over-50s. They’re playful and intelligent, with moderate exercise needs that suit a home with a small backyard and daily walks. While their short coats shed a little, their bright personalities more than make up for it. Be prepared for the occasional bark – these little watchdogs love to keep an eye on things.

Cavalier King Charles Spaniel

Small, gentle and oh-so-regal, Cavaliers are bred for companionship. Their even temper makes them a delight around people of all ages, while their adaptable nature means they’re just as happy joining you on a walk as they are curling up on the couch. They descend from sporting breeds, so they’ll also enjoy some outdoor playtime, but never at the expense of snuggles.

Yorkshire Terrier

The Yorkshire Terrier, or ‘Yorkie,’ is pint-sized with a big personality. Friendly and sociable, they generally get along well with people and other pets, making them ideal for social owners who love a trip to the dog park as much as their doggos do as well! Despite their energy, Yorkies are content with short walks and play in a small backyard. And here’s a bonus – their forever-young looks mean they’ll resemble a puppy well into adulthood.

Boston Terrier

Often mistaken for the French Bulldog, the Boston Terrier is instantly recognisable by its “tuxedo” coat, round eyes and perky ears. Intelligent and lively, this breed thrives on active play such as ball games or agility training. They can become restless if left alone for too long, so they’re best suited to owners who are home often. One look into those expressive eyes, though, and you’ll be smitten.

Maltese

Elegant yet playful, the Maltese is as sweet as they look. Their small size is perfect for compact yards or indoor living, while their low-shedding, hypoallergenic coat makes them a popular choice for many families. Don’t let the fluffy white coat fool you – this breed loves a run in the garden, a stroll around the resort ground and a visit to the dog park - and plenty of affection in between.

At Palm Lake Resort, we know how important pets are to family life. That’s why our homes are thoughtfully designed with small, enclosed backyards – ideal for safe play and exercise. And in many of our communities, you’ll even find dedicated off-leash parks where your four-legged friend can run, play and socialise too (and if not, there’s likely an off-leash park or dog beach very close by!).

Whether you’re after a loyal lap dog or a lively walking buddy, there’s a breed to suit. Ask your Palm Lake Resort neighbours for their recommendations!

Paw-some travel tips.

PALM LAKE RESORT HOMEOWNERS LOVE TO HOLIDAY – AND FOR MANY, IT JUST WOULDN’T BE THE SAME WITHOUT THEIR FOUR-LEGGED COMPANIONS. FROM CARAVANNING ADVENTURES TO LUXURY HOTEL STAYS, HERE ARE SOME TIPS TO MAKE TRAVELLING WITH YOUR DOG A BREEZE.

Check in to a pet-friendly stay

Pet-friendly accommodation has come a long way from the simple roadside motel. Today, more and more hotels are rolling out the welcome mat for pets, with chains like QT Hotels and W Hotels leading the way. These stylish city stays often include extras such as cosy pet beds, room-service menus designed for dogs, and even curated walking maps so you can explore the neighbourhood together. Boutique B&Bs and short-term rentals can also be a great option, especially for longer stays. The key is to always double-check before you book – some providers only allow pets in specific rooms, or may have limits on breed, size or number of pets. A quick phone call or email before arrival will save any disappointment at check-in. Check out websites like www.bringfido.com to find other pet-friendly stays in your chosen destination.

Camping with your canine

If you prefer caravanning or camping, you’ll find plenty of holiday parks around Australia that welcome pets. Many Palm Lake Resort homeowners love the freedom of the open road, and having your dog along for the ride makes the experience even more fun. When choosing a campsite, look for those with dog-friendly facilities such as off-leash areas, shaded outdoor spots, and nearby trails. Keep in mind that dogs are not permitted in national parks, so planning your route in advance is essential. Inside the caravan, create a safe, consistent sleeping space for your dog – a portable crate or travel bed works wonders for helping them settle. Having their own spot also makes it easier to keep fur and muddy paws contained in one area. Apps like AnyCamp can help you filter out campsites that aren’t dog-friendly.

On the road

Long drives can be daunting for dogs, especially if they’re not used to extended car travel. To make the journey smoother, plan regular stops every two to three hours so your pup can stretch their legs, hydrate and go to the toilet. Carry plenty of water and a collapsible travel bowl for convenience. Never leave your dog unattended in the car – even for a few minutes – as temperatures can rise dangerously fast. For safety, invest in a good-quality seatbelt harness, booster seat or secured crate to keep your dog restrained. Gradually building up to longer trips via shorter drives can help ease your dog into life on the road.

Taking flight

Air travel with pets requires more planning, but it can be done smoothly with preparation. Most domestic airlines in Australia allow dogs to travel in the cargo hold, while some international carriers even offer cabin spots for very small breeds. To prepare, introduce your dog to their airline-approved travel crate weeks before the trip – encourage them to sleep and rest in it at home so it feels familiar and safe on the day. Lining the crate with a favourite blanket or worn T-shirt can help soothe them with a familiar scent. On the day of travel, feed your dog a light meal a few hours before departure to avoid discomfort, and always provide access to water (airline crates often have clip-on bowls or bottles). A chat with your vet can also help – they may recommend calming sprays, natural remedies or even a pre-flight check-up to make sure your dog is fit to fly.

Whether you’re towing a caravan along the coast, checking into a chic city hotel or planning your first flight with your pet, the golden rule is preparation. A little extra planning – from confirming pet-friendly stays to packing your dog’s favourite toys – goes a long way in making your dog feel comfortable, secure and included. After all, adventures are always better with your best friend in tow.

THE PALM LAKE GROUP SPANS 27 RESORT ADDRESSES ACROSS THREE STATES AND SOME 12,000 PEOPLE CALL PALM LAKE GROUP HOME, SO THERE IS ALWAYS PLENTY OF GOOD NEWS AROUND OUR GROUNDS. IN THIS REGULAR SERIES, WE SHARE WITH YOU SOME STORIES OF WHAT YOUR FELLOW 'FAMILY MEMBERS' HAVE BEEN UP TO - WHETHER JOINING FORCES TO DO GOOD IN THE COMMUNITY OR JOINING FORCES FOR FUN!

Care cookbook shares the culinary love

Palm Lake Resort's sister company, Palm Lake Care, has just published a lovely commemorative cookbook, "From our hearts to your table", filled with special family recipes gratefully shared by residents and various team members. It was quite a lengthy process collecting all the special 'ingredients' for the 52-page cookbook, but now it's time for this highly anticipated project to be plated up and served to our excited community.

"Here we share a passion for food and use it as a bridge to connect generations, cultures and cherished moments," the book's production team members state, in the Foreword. "We're engaging residents and employees by celebrating their culinary memories, personal tastes and shared traditions. This cookbook turns mealtime into a meaningful experience, filled with flavours that comfort, inspire and bring back fond memories of home and childhood."

Every recipe reproduced in the book comes complete with a photo of the recipe's owner and the story as to why their particular recipe is so meaningful to them. For example, Palm Lake Care Deception Bay resident Johanne Visser shared his recipe for Traditional African Oxtail Stew. Johanne says this recipe was passed through three generations of his family. Children within the village where he lived would all bring the ingredients to his door and beg Johanne's wife to make this stew for them - and she'd happily oblige. Palm Lake Care Bethania resident Helen Jutte also shared a recipe that took her back to her childhood. She described her 'Dutch Stampot with Rookworst' as "One dish and a thousand memories".

"When I was 13, I moved to Holland to live with my grandmother on a farm filled with animals - even a cow that lived inside the house!" Helen recalls.

"She introduced me to new foods like Stampot Boerenkool, which we'd enjoy in winter with sausage, always saying 'Eet lekker!' which translated to 'eat well'. This dish still brings back warm memories of my time on the farm."

Palm Lake Care Bethania Service Manager Bernice Cowley shared her recipe for Malva Pudding - a beloved South African dessert, rich in nostalgia and flavour served warm and best enjoyed with custard, cream or ice cream. And our Chief Operating Officer Trish Heke's humble Cheesy Scones also got the call up!

"Making a fresh batch of scones is a tradition in my family, and while the recipe has had a modern twist put on it, the meaning remains - they are a treat from the heart," Trish smiles.

"My great grandmother made fresh scones for family when they visited. It was viewed as an honour to both serve and be served, always with a pot of tea. Naturally, I have taught my family to make them but... it still seems to fall to me to produce a batch. The team at Central Support Office don't mind when I bring some in either!"

Copies of the "From our hearts to your table" recipe book are just $20 each. To purchase your copy, simply stop by the Reception desk of your closest Palm Lake Care community (see palllakecare.com.au for contact details).

Ian walks for charity

Palm Lake Resort Cooroy-Noosa homeowner Ian Bates has collected close to $5000 and walked 114km for the 'Walk For Him' campaign, in support of prostate cancer research. "Many of us in the resort have been affected by the scourge of prostate cancer and we have lost too many good friends to it in the few years the resort has been open," Ian says. "By the end of the fundraiser, the donations I had received - both in cash and online - totalled $4734, placing me eighth out of 1215 participants on the national leader board." Nice work, Ian!

Inter-resort good sports

Palm Lake Resort Tea Gardens homeowners joined Palm Lake Resort Forster Lakes homeowners at Palm Lake Resort Fern Bay recently, to slug it out on the tennis court all in the name of good sports. As is always the case when we bring multiple resorts together for 'sport', there was an equal amount of fun reported on the sidelines as was had on the courts. The event's hosts went above and beyond for their Palm Lake Resort 'cousins' - purchasing a heater and lots of blankets to keep the crowds warm on what shaped up to be one of the area's coldest days on record! After a few games, some of the tennis players decided it was warmer to go inside and play table tennis - luckily, Forster Lakes had four table tennis players in their midst! With a delicious soup lunch enjoyed, no one really cared what the scores on the courts ended up being! The next matches will be played at Tea Gardens at the end of October.

What's over your back fence?

Has your resort got a warm and fuzzy "Over the back fence" story to share with the whole Palm Lake Resort group? We'd love to include it in the next editions of our resort newsletters. Simply contact your Caretakers or email the details to Belinda at belinda@bellepr.com

Merran is an Aussie champ!

Palm Lake Resort Yamba homeowner Merran is the Australian Three-Day Orienteering Champion (Women's 85A). While not competing for four years due to a hip replacement and recovery from a fractured pelvis, Merran came second on Day One, first on Day Two and second on Day Three but she was ultimately fastest over the three days and took out the Australian championship. Well done, Merran!

Kindness grows, and grows

Palm Lake Resort Forster Lakes homeowners have rallied behind their local area's flood relief effort with thanks to two key charitable neighbours, Dee and Carol. The pair wanted to help via a collection drive and with the guidance of the Pacific Palms Rural Fire Service, the social media-savvy ladies put a call out to their fellow resort neighbours and were soon inundated with donations of things like food, nappies, toilet paper and animal food. With all hands on deck, they loaded up the resort bus as well as a car trailer and headed to Pacific Palms RFS (as pictured above) to sort and then deliver the haul to the Community Flood Relief Hub in Taree. Still on their charitable high some weeks later, the group heard there was additional need for clothes and bedding. They collected, sorted and labelled another trailerload that went to hubs in Taree and Wingham the following day.

Knowing their charitable efforts were really making a difference, the Forster Lakes homeowners looked for further ways to continue spreading the love. Through Pacific Palms RFS they met two families to sponsor. They worked directly with the family members to find out what exactly they needed to get their homes and even a farm back up and running - and happily obliged with more donated kitchen and household items as well as a monetary donation. After all of the effort and success, the homeowners have decided to 'adopt' the Pacific Palms RFS and have been helping to stock their fridge with meals, cakes etc for when they are out and about looking out for the rest of the local community. As Dee and Carol say, "Helping these helpers makes us feel great!". Well done to all the selfless Palm Lake Resort Forster Lakes homeowners who contributed in some way.

Home to your best years.
