Escena has emerged as a firm favourite home design for its many memorable luxury features. This home oozes light, bright, revitalising energy with thanks to its sea of strategically placed windows, glass sliding doors and skylights. Lose yourself in the master suite's vast walk-in robe. Beyond the three incredible bedrooms, the additional multi-purpose room is filled with luxury joinery to house everything from your wine collection to your home theatre equipment, to your home administration needs. A separate panel-lift garage door for your golf car (in addition to the double-car garage with its own dedicated entry) provides convenience for that other important set of wheels.
